Dawn Brings the Light...and the Day...

*"Look to this day;
for it is the very life of life.
In its brief course lie all the verities and realities of your existence:
the glory of action,
the bliss of growth,
the splendor of beauty,
for yesterday is but a dream and tomorrow is only a vision;
but today well lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day."*

Omar Khayyam

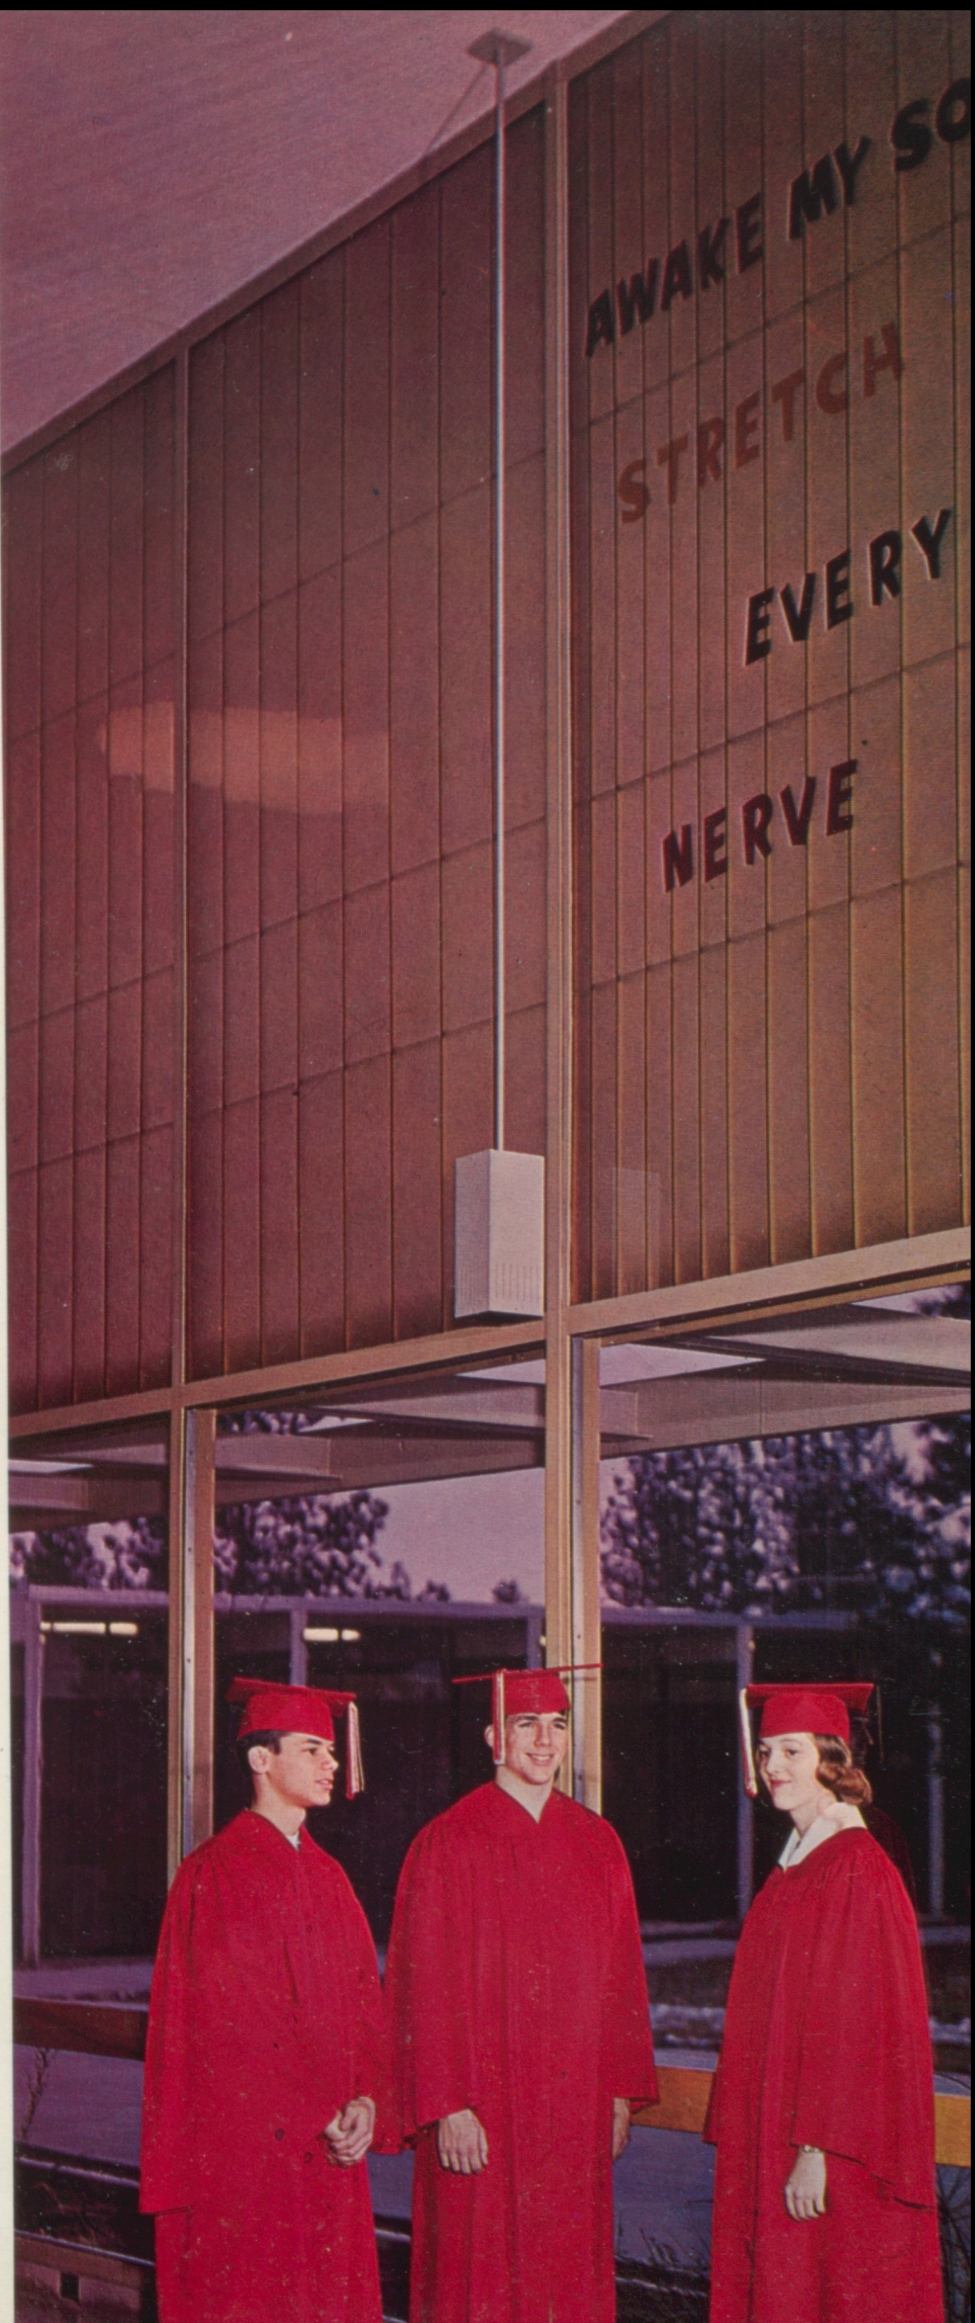

Early the day begins . . . an anxious glance at the clock over the door . . . and the breathless arrival in home-room.

A heated debate in history seminar . . . pondering over The Dialogues of Plato . . . the rustle of papers and the hum of voices in the resource center . . . a sea of animated faces and the milkbottles crowned with crumpled straws . . . colorful banners under the clock . . . and the shelves bulging with books . . . long lines . . . long conversations . . . the day goes on.

The scratching of pens on paper . . . the crush on the stairs going to the listening laboratory . . . and the earphones that never fit . . . then the slamming of locker doors . . . and the laughter . . . and the shouting . . . and running.

The football game . . . the kick-off . . . the bouncing cheerleaders . . . and screaming crowds . . . green grass and white lights against the black sky . . . red on the field . . . and in the stands . . . the splinters in the benches . . . and the shakers in one's face.

Now graduation . . . excitement in the air . . . beaming parents . . . and nervous graduates . . . the line of scarlet in the aisle . . . the happy tears . . . a feeling of ending . . . yet a feeling of beginning . . . the beginning of life . . . the dawn of the future . . . and the dawn brings light.

Dr. Donald Hair, former Director of Secondary Curriculum in Spokane, is credited with the establishment of modular scheduling at Joel E. Ferris. Encouraged by the success of a pilot study in team teaching at North Central high school in Spokane, Dr. Hair instigated a drive for a complete team teaching system at Spokane's newest high school.

While workmen still hammered and sawed at 37th and Regal, Dr. Hair and Principal Blauert visited and observed similar schools in the Chicago, St. Louis, and St. Paul areas to gain a better understanding of this new system in operation.

To Dr. Hair and other far-seeing educators we dedicate this book.

Associated Students

The 1965 fall semester was led by five student body officers elected the previous spring. They were: President, Jim Wilkinson; Vice President, Rick Riley; Secretary, Jan Swanson; Treasurer, Meagan Breen; and Historian, Roger Feldman. Some of the activities headed by these student leaders included Saxon Week, a Tiger Sucker sale and a Christmas Card signed by students of Ferris and sent to American troops stationed in Viet Nam. The plans for the school year were made during the summer by these five officers. Leader Jim Wilkinson attended a leadership conference at Ferris and directed towards developing the qualities required of a student officer.

Spring Semester 1966 Student Body Officers

Taking over the duties of student body president for the 1966 spring semester was Tom Sherry. Other student officers were: Secretary, Carol Dehner; Vice President, Joel Lassman; Historian, Sandi Clausen; and Treasurer, Bill Myhre.

Are All Action

Hard at work on decoration planning for the first annual Inaugural Ball were Kathy Mason, decorations chairman; Drexie Cox, publicity chairman; and Gail McLaughlin, general chairman. The dance was named "The Canterbury Ball" with a medieval theme. The decorations were planned around this theme with castles and tapestries as part of the decor. "The Canterbury Ball" honored all past and present student body officers. It was held in the Student Union Building on the Gonzaga University Campus.

Dresden and

League of Dresdens activities started off with the Big and Little Sister Party in September titled "Our Blooming Years." This was a pleasant welcome to the new girls coming into Ferris in the fall.

The girls next major project was in October with their annual Dad Daughter Desert called "Making Pappy Happy."

On December 17, Noel was enjoyed by many. This very successful dance made the "65" Christmas more poignant than ever.

As a Christmas gift, the League of Dresden gave fifty dollars to Ferris' Friendship club. This went for a party for the elder patients who have been released from Eastern State Hospital.

The New Year was started off on January 3, by celebrating the first annual Joel E. Ferris Day. This was in honor of Mr. Ferris' birthday, January 2, 1874.

The spring officers were installed February 9, 1966, in the traditional candlelighting ceremony of the League of Dresden.

The first project for the new officers was to make identical dresses for themselves to be worn at important activities. This was fun for the girls and impressive to others as well.

Spring was sprung at Ferris as all enjoyed the third annual Cotton Day on April 5. This array of spring colors before spring vacation was a welcomed change for all.

Ending Dresden's busy and successful year was the Mother Daughter Tea held on May 3. This was a most enjoyable ending to another wonderful and eventful year for the League of Dresden.

Mr. Lundberg crowns Jan Swanson queen of the 1966 BFD. Receiving her crown and holding a dozen red roses, Jan appears to be a very happy girl.

The Court of Carmine began their year publishing a calendar for every month. These calendars were given to the student body, and proved to be a helpful reminder of the activities planned for that month.

Carmines next project was the second annual BFD, (Boys Federation Dance). This was a great success because of the help of the various clubs of Ferris. Each club nominated a girl to represent that club as their queen candidate. Every girl had a decorated locker into which pennies were cast as votes. On the eve of the dance, pennies were counted, and because her locker had the most pennies in it, Jan Swanson was announced queen of the 1966 BFD.

On February 9, the new officers were installed into their positions for the spring semester. The guest speaker was Mr. Bob Lewis, who did a fine job in helping to make the installation a success.

Finishing their year, the Court of Carmine held a car rally on April 16. This proved to be a very successful money raising project and fun for the whole student body.

"Let the Scarlet and Enthusiastically supporting the Saxon teams this year were the Valkyrs. Under the direction of presidents Stephanie Craven and Sue Pease, and vice presidents Pattie Grams and Connie Hefte, this is one of the most active organizations at Ferris. Led by drill masters Julie Graves and Meegan Breen these girls spent most of their time preparing marching routines for football games and the Lilac Parade. Being asked to march at Whitworth's homecoming was a great honor to them. Activities for the year included a breakfast for the varsity football players after their first victory, helping with the March of Dimes, Christmas caroling at nursing homes, ushering and selling tickets for school events, and caring for orphans at St. Joseph's Childrens Home.

With the help of publicity chairmen Yvonne Cloninger and Marjorie Herbert the Valkyrs made signs advertising varsity sports. In order to earn money for uniforms they sold tickets to games, under the direction of treasurers Barbara Brown and Wendy Gookstetter, and gave two dances, headed by social chairmen Meegan Breen and Gail Kirk. With the help of the secretaries, Kathy James and Carol Sommer, and the sergeants at arms, Marsha Buster and Steffi Sivertson, a merit system was formed this year for girls who give extra service and time for the benefit of their school and community.

Silver...

The cheerleaders have spent a very busy year. In order to promote school spirit with the students they spent many hours planning pep cons before games. By selling pickles and popcorn balls they were able to earn enough money to buy new uniforms for basketball season. To prepare themselves for this year they spent a week at a conference in Ellensburg and practiced cheering all summer. Be it football, basketball, or wrestling the cheerleaders never failed to loyally support the Saxon teams.

Stand out among the rest"

The CHARIONS added spirit and support to the activities of Ferris this year. Meeting every week under the supervision of Miss Schad, Miss Stevens, Mrs. Magnuson and Miss Weaver, they sold fight flowers, tickets for games, and song books. At Christmas and Valentines they sold candy and in the spring put on a school mixer, "Boots and Saddles."

Fall and Spring officers were: President - Connie Carlock, Linda Graff; Vice President - Kathy Krakenberg, Sue Baldwin; Secretary - Karen Alsworth, Barbara Reed; Treasurer - Jean McClusky, Melba Aukland.

Charion Karen Alsworth graciously accepts money given to her by eager ticket purchaser, Tom Miller, with Vicki Hamilton holding the ticket.

Selling tickets to sports events became one of their main activities.

Clubs Promote Sports and Spirit

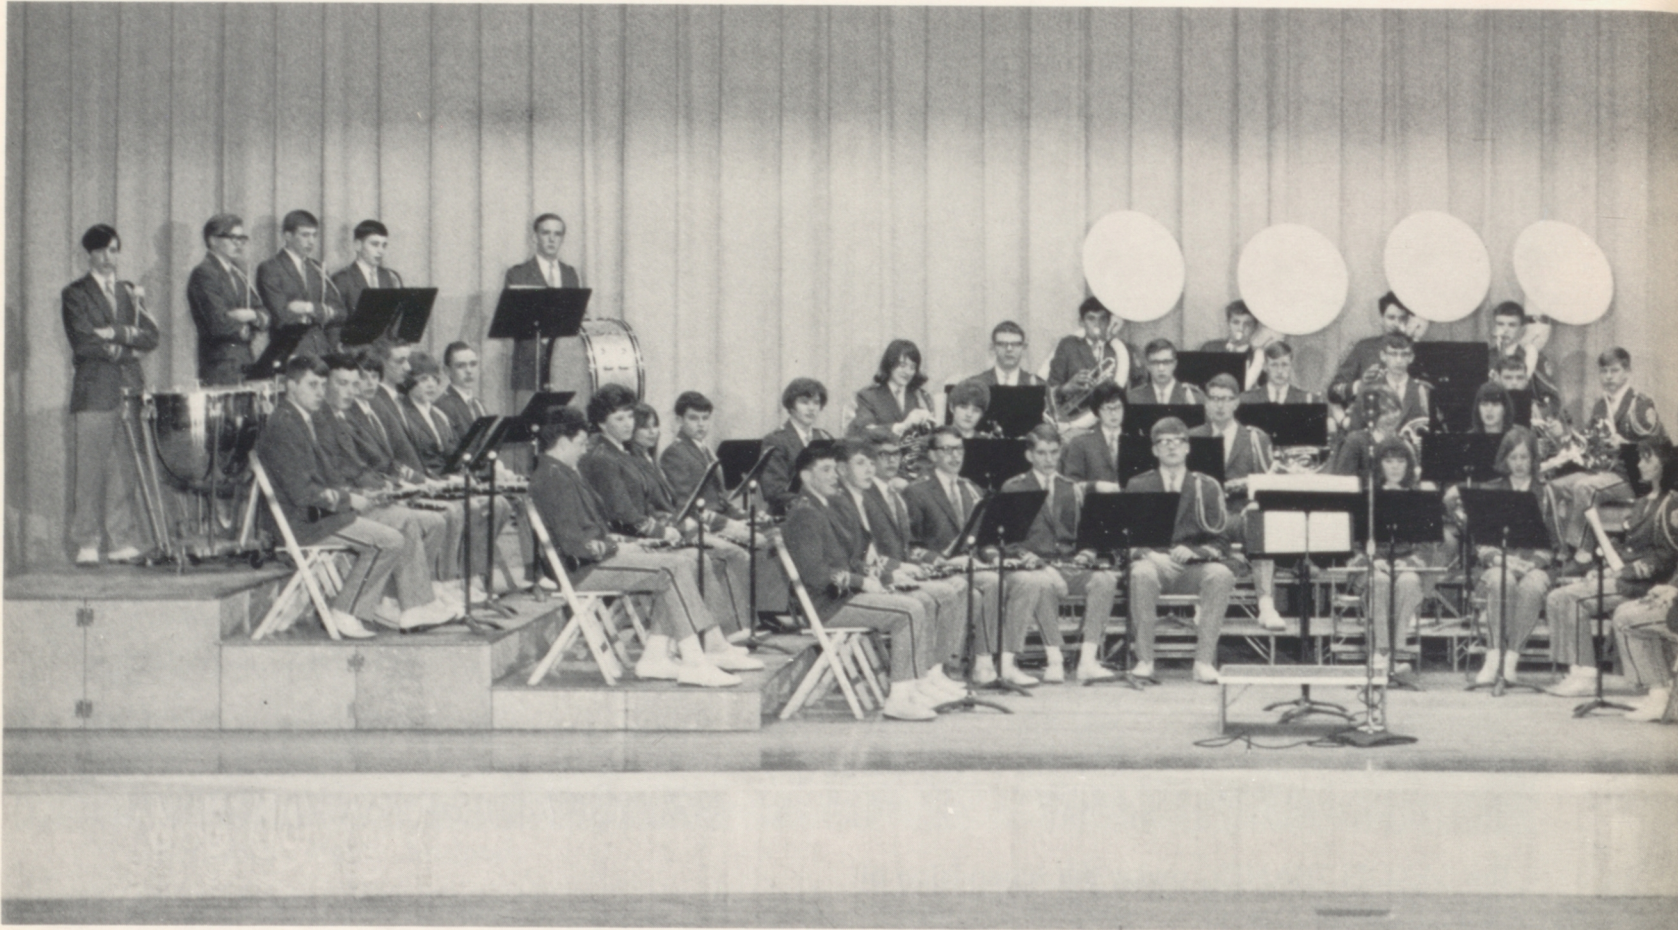

The SAXON THANES, under the supervision of Mr. Guthrie, have served Ferris well this year. Besides providing a cheering section at games, the members have sold tickets to games, held their annual Turkey Shoot, and sponsored a dance in November.

Officers for this year were: President - Bob George; Vice President - Ken Shatzer; Secretary - Ron Keezer; and Treasurer - John Sepolen.

One of the Lettermen's main campaigns for this year has been to keep the cafeteria clean. Paul Dibblee and Kent McVey are seen here picking up some trays left behind by other students.

Ferris Band

Adding sparkle and vivacity to the marching performances of the band and marching unit are the exuberant majorettes. Attired in scarlet and silver uniforms, they perform many eye catching routines. Pictured are: Christi Irwin; Lorna Homan, Head Majorette; and Jo Anderson.

Leads Lilac Parade

Saxons had plenty of reasons to be proud of the Joel E. Ferris high school band this past year.

Probably the biggest thrill came during Lilac Festival week when the band, under the direction of Mr. Wayne Summers, was chosen to be the honor band in the Lilac Parade. Another honor was the selection of band members Shelley Johnson and Dan Dolan to participate in All-State Band held in Spokane.

Over the course of the year the band sponsored many activities, the annual Blue Moon Mixer on February 21st, selling candy, stationery, telephone book covers, and selling tickets to all band performances throughout the year.

Musical Saxons

Mr. Hagen directs choir.

The choir and ensemble, under the direction of Mr. Larry Hagen, has excelled brilliantly throughout the school year. The most thrilling experience was the production of "Annie Get Your Gun" presented by the choir and drama departments with choir member Joan Lucke playing the lead. The choir participated in the spring and Christmas concerts, the pops concert in May and a music contest in April. Another outstanding event was the choosing of Mark Swinehart, Jim Franklin, Carolyn Darby, Lyn Stutsman, and Joan Lucke to participate in the All-State Choir held in Spokane.

Another group that has made a name for itself is the Canterbury Belles, under the direction of Mr. Larry Hagen, who participated in many concerts and group performances.

Advance Harmony

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Wayne Summers, has performed in many concerts and school performances throughout the year.

"There's No Business

"Annie Get Your Gun"

Under the direction of Mrs. Georgia Sutherlin, members of the RED BULL PLAYERS work toward becoming future Thespians. The Red Bull Players lend their services to other clubs in which their talent is needed. Leading the group in promoting school talent are: Willy Coats, President; Gail McLaughlin, Vice President; Wendy Heath, Secretary; Cheri Eubanks, Treasurer; and Sharon King, Historian.

"There's No Business Like Show Business," one of the theme songs from "Annie Get Your Gun," seems to typify feelings of Ferris performers, who provide Ferris with an excellent program of plays during the year. A good example proved to be Joan Lucke as "Annie" and Judy Boyce, Mary Zimmer and Mary Harrison as the children.

Miss Lillian Brown

Director of dramatics at Ferris, Miss Lillian Brown, with the help of her students, provides excellent plays. Without her devotion and hard work these original productions could not have been so popular.

On January 15, 1964, the Ferris THESPIANS, Troupe 1506 received its charter from the National Thespian Society, now international in scope. Thespians are devoted to the improvement and promotion of the dramatics in the secondary schools. Acting according to the motto of the National Thespian Society, "Act well your part; there all the honor lies", the Ferris Thespians have worked extraordinarily hard to give Ferris an excellent program of plays. Advisors to the group are Miss Lillian Brown and Mr. Albert Mattus.

Like Show Business"

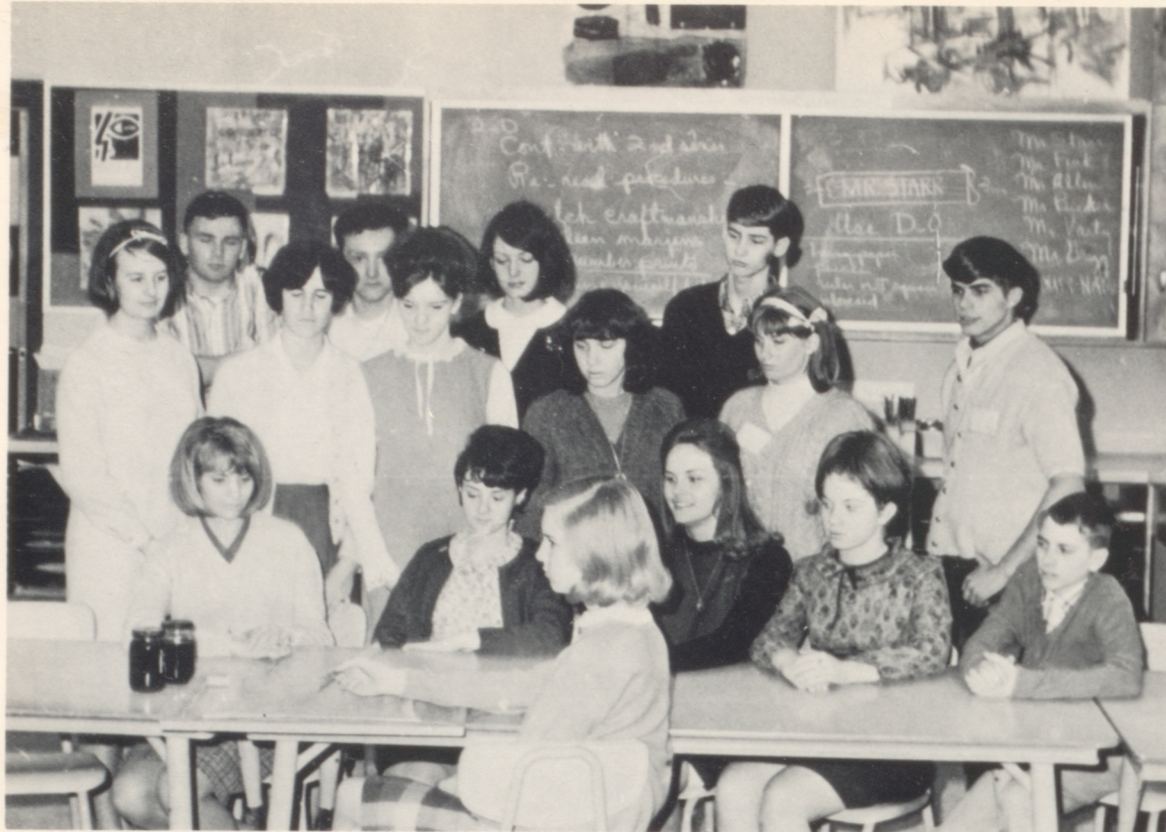

"BERKELEY SQUARE"

Steve Hanson, center, as Peter Standish, almost accidentally reveals to the other Berkeley Square characters, Scott Ashcom, Randy Hopkins, Tom Hart, and Keith Blowers, that he is not the real Peter Standish. Actually, he is returning to the time of his great-grandfather during the 1800s.

With the April 26th Art Bazaar as a goal, the art club, NORTHUMBRIAN GUILD, has been busily working on many projects. Money raised from selling articles at this bazaar is used to buy materials and equipment. Mr. Varty and Mr. Gregg assist this organization.

Careers and Hobbies

Involve Ferris Clubs

The CHESS CLUB was founded this year with the help of Mr. Watson. Members meet once a week to hold matches between one another and work towards challenges made by other schools. Seated: Randy Cloward, Secretary-Treasurer; and Terry Cornelius, President. Standing, left to right: Dick Allen, Gary Lacombe, Greg Shepherd, Dave Bula, Rick Schroer, Gary Noman, Jeff Miller, Ron Parrish, Bobe Kehle, Doug Clark, Rick Hussey - Fall President, Mr. Watson, Bruce Haidle, and Bernie Hoerner.

A re-organization of last years club was the first project of the AMATEUR RADIO CLUB. Under the direction of Advisor, Mr. Fink; President, Dave Graham; Vice President, and Station Trustee, Jim Castino; and Secretary-Treasurer, Dave Bula the club applied for their government amateur radio club license and obtained a room where they could begin to acquire and set up equipment for the amateur station. Members are left to right: Tom Mayhan, Jim Castino, Dave Graham, Dave Bula, Dick Allen, Bruce Levitch, and Mr. Fink.

Published bimonthly at Ferris, the SAXON CHRONICLES give students the latest news. Students owe their appreciation to the Newspaper Staff for a tremendous job.

A newly formed organization at Ferris, the HONOR PASS COUNCIL gives it's opinion on honor pass, library, and general student policies.

Benefit Students

The first group of COURTESY GIRLS was selected on December 23, 1965. The purpose of the organization is to usher at different functions of the school or be of help to new students.

The Spanish Club has had an active year with a fiesta for every month. Besides being an enjoyable party for club members, it was also very educational. Films and slides were shown of various Latin American countries, giving the students a greater understanding of the country and language.

On April 22, a final fiesta was held at Rogers High School for all Spanish clubs in Spokane.

Front: Don Randall, Alan Carriveau, John Fenton, Joe Petersen. Middle: Cindy Salliday, Greta Smith, Juanita Goodman, Kathy Licht. Back: Keith Blowers, Diane Hughes, Linda Marsh, Madeline Kolarsky, Jan Wilcox and Debbie Hensley. Advisor: Mr. Ron Merrill.

The RED CROSS CLUB is very proud of their achievements this year. The most outstanding is the time and efforts they have given to Eastern State Hospital. Club members went to Eastern about once a month to visit and entertain the patients.

For a money raising project the city wide Red Cross dance was held on April 23. Ferris joined Red Cross clubs throughout the city in making this dance a complete success.

Front: Advisor, Miss Halverson; Mary Goudy, Sharlene Johnson, Kathy Mason, Lavelet Randolph, Kathy Krakenberg, Cheryl Nolting, Judy Jeans, Jean McCluskey, Sue Steward, Diana Chapman, Nancy Krakenberg, Janeen Calkins and advisor, Mrs. Boyington. Back: Dave Carlson, Fin Taylor, Darryl Chitwood and Lee Pratt.

The GERMAN CLUB has had a very educational year. Their usual meeting consists of having either a speaker and or films about Germany. This has successfully broadened their understanding of the German language and also the people of Germany.

Organizations Boost Spirits

DECA, which stands for Distributive Education Clubs of America is a nation wide organization preparing high school students for future job employment.

Ferris's DECA club attended a leadership conference March 11 through the 20th at the Davenport Hotel. The conference consisted of job interviews, selling merchandise, and practice in public speaking.

As their money raising project, DECA sold paper back books throughout the year. This money was used for a banquet given by the DECA students for their employers as a close to a very successful year.

Ferris's Future Teachers have strived throughout the year to educate themselves for their coming careers.

They have attended three conferences to increase their understanding of children and how they learn.

The students have also assisted teachers at Adams primary school and performed various services for the Ferris faculty.

Seated: Betty Kraft, Mary Harrison, Kathy Hager, Dorothy Kyseth. Standing: Sharon Rector, Chris Peterson, Susan Frances, Debbi Mottram, Cindy Salliday, Carol Sommer, Barbra Annis, Charlyn Fulton, Patti Grams, Sue Pease, John Harrison, Debbie Hensley. Advisor: Mr. Mac Saunders.

Dancing, singing, dramatics, instruments - Put them together and you have Dasidrian, an all-city, all-girl talent club. The club was organized in 1921 to promote talented girls from all high schools in the city of Spokane. At the present time there are around seventy members. In the spring, Dasidrian puts on it's annual Frivolities, a musical show planned and presented by the members to display their talent to the public. In order to join Dasidrian a girl must first try-out in front of girls who share her particular talent. After this try-out, a final one in front of all the members is held. Members must be taking lessons in their talent both during try-outs and during membership in the club. Dasidrian is sponsored by the parents of the club members.

Key Club Works for Ferris and Spokane

One of Ferris' new clubs organized during the school year of 1965-66 was the KEY CLUB. This organization is for boys who give their time performing services for their community. The club is sponsored by the Spokane Chapter of Kiwanis, a national business men's organization. Seated: Rob Fukai, Secretary-Treasurer; Chuck Frary, President; Chris Bush, Vice-President. First row: Bill Myhre, Jim Cochran, Bruce Cromwell, John Lundblade, Roger Feldman, Dick Cromwell, Andy James, John Sepolen, Jim Wilkinson, Jim Black, Ron Guiles. '66 Exeter Staff Labors Long

The 1966 EXETER staff headed by Sue Daiger, Editor; Mary Ann Hammond, Associate Editor; and Mrs. Patricia Freeman, Staff Advisor; are pictured at the right. The class included study ranging from copy to finance. Members worked throughout the school year gathering information about Saxons and their activities. Financing was met by selling advertising to Spokane business firms and the advanced yearbook sales. During the first week of June 1965, the editors attended a yearbook conference at the University of Washington. There they learned the many necessary techniques needed to put together an annual. In the fall of 1965 several staff members attended another conference held at Whitworth College. At these classes they studied the fundamentals of producing a yearbook.

Glimpses Saxony

Stephanie Craven poses as Mary Poppins in the second annual Valkyr convocation. The con. was "Wha' Hoppin To Mary Poppins."

A Christmas card, signed by the student body, was sent to our boys in Viet Nam. It praised them for the fine job they are doing there and pledged our support to them.

Ready to prey upon students in 437 are Mr. Dahlberg and Mr. Allen.

As a conclusion to Saxon Week the Junior Class held a car bash with a Tiger as the honored guest. Because of the football game to be held that night with Lewis and Clark the car was given a tail and painted orange and black. It gave students a good chance to show their school spirit when they "smashed L.C."

SPORTS

Laurie Benjamin and Lynn Gilbert both placed third in the District meet held at Gonzaga University, February 18 and 19.

"They had the potential of going all the way to state, and have a fine future in college wrestling if they care to go on," said Coach Pixley.

These two grapplers were instrumental in many team victories throughout the season.

The Varsity Wrestling team ended a very impressive season with five wins and three losses; this put Ferris into a tie for third place in city competition. Coach Pixley was pleased with his team and expressed this in the following quote:

"The season was a tremendous success! We started out with seventy-five boys and forty-eight stayed on to finish the season. We had as fine a squad as any in the city. There were many heartbreaks as well as highlights such as the Shadle Park, Eisenhower, and Davis of Yakima matches.

This was our first year with seniors and most of these boys have been with us three years. It is always a pleasure for a coach to see the development, both physically and in character, of young men; this was evident in our team. Coach Johnson and I will always have a special place for this group. We battled the city schools while only sophomores and this factor tended to develop 'esprit d'corps' among the team members making for a nice tight-knit group who always gave the last full measure of effort for their school and coach. A special thanks should be given to the wonderful fans we accumulated along the way. It has done a lot to develop the wrestling team especially when the going gets tough and one can hear chanting voices in the stand.

Next year we will have a tremendous crop of boys which will be as fine as this season's squad.

Our aim is not only to develop a winning team and build character but, also, to never lose sight of this goal."

At the Sports' Award Con on March 22, awards were given to Lynn Gilbert for Outstanding Wrestler, the Inspirational Award to Danny Morgan, and Captains of the 1966 season, Danny Stark and Doug Vawter.

Mr. Anthony Dolphin coached Ferris' cross-country to second place in the city league and third at state; he also assists in track.

Sprinters getting ready to leave the starting block are Paul Anderson, Larry Gonzalves, Jim Wilkinson, Andy James, and Marvin Shellberg.

Powerful and Fast-

Rick Graff is shown throwing the shotput, which demands strength and coordination.

Jack Iszler, Joe Ross, Wayne Ristau and Rick Riley are among the strong distance runners.

Ferris can be extremely proud of its varsity track team because of their excellent showing in City League Track Meets.

Under the coaching of Mr. Herman Caviness, the boys worked very hard during spring training. The result of this practice and self-determination are shown in better times and distances achieved.

Coach Caviness remarked that "the 1966 team has been our finest team so far".

Rick Riley gave the team strong support in the distance races. Also competing in the long races were Joe Ross, Wayne Ristau, Jack Iszler, Clark Satre, Mike Wright, Paul Gese and Al Lofton. The hurdlers also showed good potential with Joe Blotzke, Andy Lofton, Biff Bankey and Sam Hieronymus. Jim Wilkinson, Andy James, Larry Gonzalves, Paul Anderson and Vern Bretz did well in the sprints and relays. Dick Prugh led the pole vaulters with strong support from Biff and Buff Bankey. Ferris had great strength in the shot put from Joel Lassman, Wayne Brothers, Rick Graff, Sheldon Schultz, Vern Bretz and Larry Noll.

The frosh track team, under the coaching of Mr. Speer and the B-squad team, headed by Mr. Dolphin both placed high in many events this season.

The boys tennis team under the direction of Lenord Hunt, is developing rapidly. The outstanding team members in doubles are George Schroeder and Art Rorex, and in singles Rick Ferrell is at the top. Girls Tennis, coached by Miss Manor, is giving the other schools good competition. The best players, in order of number of league matches won are Kathy Fullwiler, Nancy Thomas, Jeanie Dompier, Linda Kuljus and Jeri Butcher.

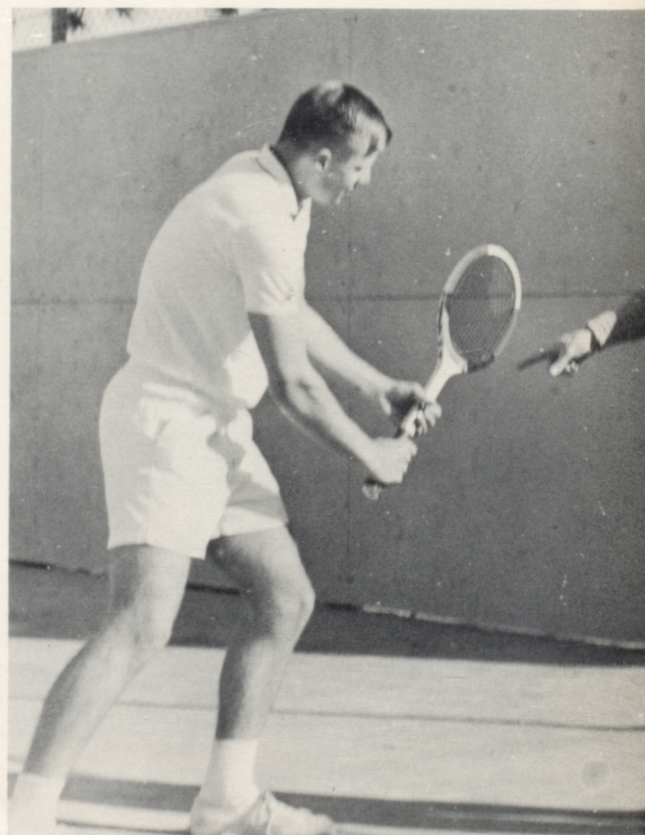

The Girls Golf team plays at Indian Canyon and is showing improvement. Players in with the highest scores are, Diane Fields, Sandy Churchill, and Greta Smith. Other members, directed by Miss Foss are contending for top spots. In Boys golf, Coach Varty has said "The other schools are looking to us for a great deal of competition." Players with the highest scores are Mark Wallace, Mike O'Brien, Lloyd Baker and Jim Breeden.

ARTHUR BLAUERT
Principal

As I came through the foyer of the auditorium the other day, I glanced up and read the quotation, "Success is having the courage to meet failure without being defeated," and noted the relationship of this to the success of Joel E. Ferris in the formative years.

You, our Senior Class, are now approaching the first graduation, and much of the success of Joel E. Ferris High School is due to your efforts. Congratulations to you for providing the leadership that has made this an outstanding example for other schools of the nation to emulate.

Science Challenges

The science department at Ferris operates under a new system. The students wishing extra or further study in science can use his independent study anytime while labs are open. The department offers freshmen physical science, sophomores biology, juniors or seniors chemistry, physics and integrated science. The head of the science department was Mr. Louderback. The field of science is also in great for more new inventions and study. In the future will be needed more people in the area of science.

Raising money for the Junior Prom, being their primary goal, juniors scheduled a bake sale early in the fall.

The next project undertaken was a car bash which gathered throngs of students. An old car was donated and painted the notorious colors (orange and black) of a rival school.

E.Y.E. Presents; the name of the Junior Con, held on March 16, was a successful event. The co-chairmen were Jan Dagman and Nancy Thomas.

Mr. Stan Moore and Mr. Steve Hogue were advisors for the Junior Class and helped in many ways.

"A Taste of Honey", the Junior Prom, under the chairmanship of Lory McLellan and Andy James, was held April 30, at Gonzaga University. The theme of the prom was carried out through the decorations which were large flowers and bees. The prom was an excellent climax to a successful year for the juniors.

Nancy Hufford and Dawn Dieter sell goodies to eager Saxons.

"Ma," (Gail McLaughlin) and "Pa," (Dick Krause) are discussing the reforms of the Senators.

Batman, (Jack Saad) shows his strength by letting Robin (Marc Wallace) carry him.

A typical college bound junior can be seen engrossed in the pages of an American History book but not far away can be seen a group of students gathered around a table talking about the latest "patches" layed on Regal Street.

The majority of constructive juniors have already learned about the use of college catalogs for information about their intended school.

When the Juniors take the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Tests in the spring they are introduced to the challenges of a typical college entrance test as just a sample of what is in store next year.

Throng Prom

In order to have money for the Junior Prom, the Junior Classmen worked on various projects throughout the year.

Many willing juniors spent hours baking cupcakes for a bake-sale held on December 8th. Another project sponsored by the Junior Class which attracted throngs of students was the Car Bash held on December 17th. An old car was painted orange and black to represent the Lewis and Clark vs. Ferris basketball game.

The Junior Class also sponsored the annual Junior Convocation attended by all the student body.

In Memoriam

Saturday was rapidly drawing to a close. A slight rustling of autumn leaves could be heard from the cottonwoods which were immediately to the left of the anxious gunbearer. Suddenly the dog hit on a scent and plunged into a ditch. Almost simultaneously a fat hen rose, leveled off, and then landed in the grove. Both dog and hunter moved cautiously toward their prey. The grove rustled as a large "chink" flew quickly into the air. The hunter leveled his shotgun and shot only once, because once was enough. From the grove could be heard a faint rustling of leaves as this dying evening died forever.

This theme was written on September 27, 1965, by a young boy for a Junior English course at Ferris. On the bottom of the sheet his teacher commented, "Terrific, just like a short movie, good pace, description, variety, vocabulary." On Halloween night this same boy was tragically killed in an automobile accident near Spokane. He was Kenneth Seeman, a student at Joel E. Ferris High School. Those who knew him said, "Ken always remembered a name, a face, a joke. He always returned a smile."

Versatility Asset to Seniors

The cheerleaders are giving a con - the first one Oliver has seen and probably one he'll never forget.

The computer appears to be McMullin), Mr. Finnegan and oversee its progression.

Versatility is an invaluable asset to any school, and the seniors at Joel E. Ferris are lucky enough to possess it. Students exhibit their high quality of work in the scholastic field as well as having fun. The students with the twelve highest grade-points should be very proud as should the students who put on the successful Senior Con.

"Oliver, how does Joel E. Ferris look to you?" Yes, this was the question presented by the Senior Con. Poor Oliver really had a rough first day at Ferris. However, to off-set his confusion, he'll never forget the harmonizing voices of Polly, Mike and Randy, or the friendliness of Ferris students.

Mr. Finnegan, portrayed by Bill Stallcop, is looking over Oliver's schedule card as it flows out of the computer. Something seems to have turned out wrong.

rattling as Mrs. Tiffany (Jackie Mr. Blauert (Charlie Hendricks)

Mr. Pixiley (Bill Dodge) is giving a complicated lecture to Oliver (Rick Riley) on the subject of his schedule.

Hard Work Brings Happy Times

The Senior Class officers called their first meeting to order on October 5, 1965. There were many important events for discussion, such as the Senior Con, the Pickle Sale and the Car Wash. Also, on the coming agenda was the sale of Senior Class rings, the Senior Breakfast, and, most exciting of all to the seniors, the Prom.

In the early part of the school year May 27, 1966 was set as the date for the Roman Carnival, with Fort Wright College as the setting. With the added help of committees and our officers, the senior year has been memorable and full of fun.

The chairmen for the Prom Committee are as follows: Pam Bakken, Decorations; Ron Huff, General; Mary Beth Phelps, Tickets; Tom Miller, Pictures; Rick Meckstorth, Music; and, not pictured, Sally Paulson, Chaperones.

A night to remember, at a Roman Carnival are Gordon Roward and Lynn Adkison.

Representatives Participate in Mock Government

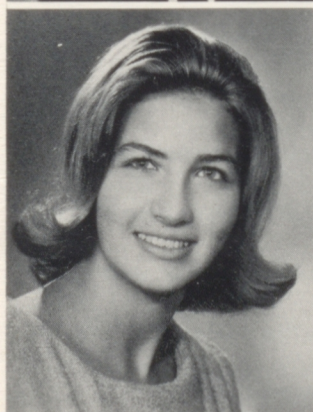

Grouped around the Washington state flag are the 1965 representatives to Girls' and Boys' State: Glen Clark, Jan Swanson, Robbie Fukaii, Randy Hopkins and Suzie Harris. These students were chosen by the American Legion to represent Ferris at the conferences held in Ellensburg and Tacoma. The purpose is to help students become more interested in government and its functions. In order to better understand how our state is run, mock cities and governments were formed giving every delegate an opportunity to participate in its activities.

A long, weary day of exams faced many senior students in October with the Washington Pre-College Tests. These tests are necessary for any student entering a Washington State College.

Later in December the Scholastic Aptitude Tests were given for those students going to private or out-of-state colleges. These exams are necessary for placement as well as entrance in the colleges of the surrounding area.

Serve Apprenticeship During Saxon Week

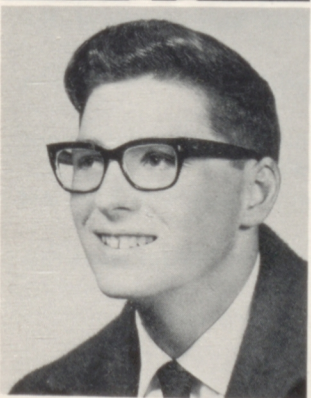

This was a familiar scene on Noble-Serf Day during Saxon Week in September. Here serf Janet Hammond carries books for noble Scott Barratt. The purpose of Saxon Week is to acquaint and orient new students with life at Ferris, and to promote spirit among all Saxons. The week began with a con to introduce the events of the week which included: Noble-Serf Day, Serf-Noble Day, Noiseless-Knights Day, and Damsels in Distress Day. The weeks events concluded with a Knight Life Dance on Friday.

Through the sometimes sunny, frequently windy, and usually be-puddled breezeways, senior girls trample their way. Ann Harrington, Bonnie Hayes, and Kay Hanson make a quick locker check before they're off to homeroom and classes. Many things happen during the 7 1/2 hours of a typical day, by 2:30 the carefully combed hair-do can become quite rumpled. But there will be no rumpled spirits for they take it in their stride.

Serious drama was brought to the stage of our Ferris Auditorium with Dan Totheroh's famous "Moor Born." A senior cast, under the direction of Miss Brown, related the moving story of the Bronte family, of the marsh land in Northern England, as they confronted fame and distress.

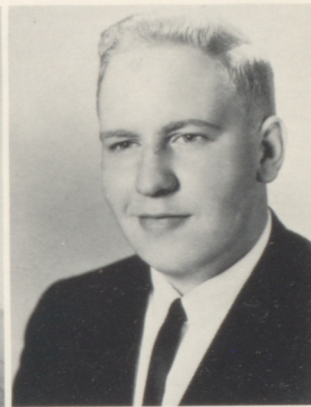

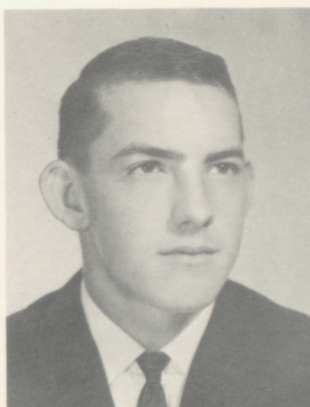

This scene captures the deep emotion of Emily's, (Bonnie Francis) ironical sacrifice for her dissolute brother, Branwell, (Steve Hansen) just before he dies of tuberculosis. Grief dominates the faces of those looking on. They include: Tabby the Maid, (JoAnn Oakes), Anne Bronte, (Bonnie Bracken) and Rev. Patrick Bronte, (Randy Hopkins).

The culmination of twelve years of schooling is expressed beautifully by a Senior ring. This ring symbolizes the challenges and activities accomplished to reach this turning point in life. Many memories will be brought back as this ring is worn...the Junior and Senior Prom, the excitement of the first day of Ferris, our first football victory over the Tigers, the words of wisdom in the auditorium, strolling in the courtyard, and...most important, graduation.

Art Emphasizes Creativity

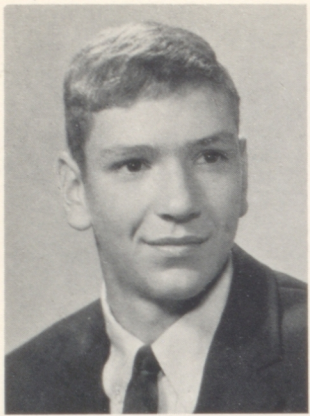

Three Dimensional Art was one of the courses offered this year by the art department. Cydne Funk finds it both interesting and creative. Projects completed by this class were abstract sculptures, textiles, and jewelry. This course helps prepare students for aspects of art and architecture.

To Be a Senior

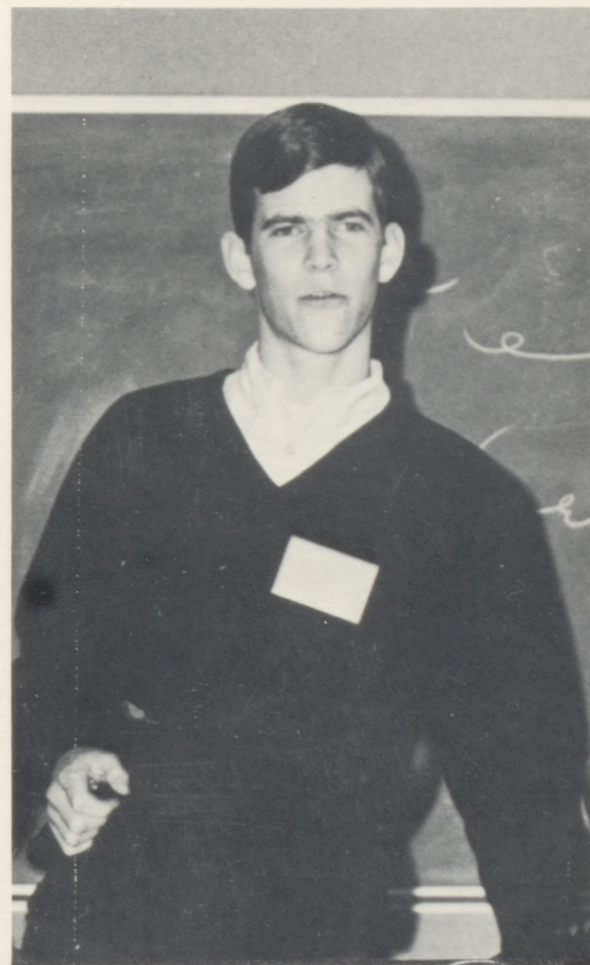

Watch the freshmen and try to remember being that juvenile... buy a new formal and make a hair appointment and then worry about a date... say "hi" to people you haven't talked to for three years... run home after school to see if there's a letter from the university... look down on taller underclassmen... think about the past and wonder about the future...

Is to...

*watch small children
playing and feel you have lost something... begin to realize that parents are people...
doodle and dream in a large group...want to run ahead and stay behind at the same time, to be anxious and excited about the road ahead, and also nostalgic about scenes past.*

Ferris Adds First Princess to Lilac Fete

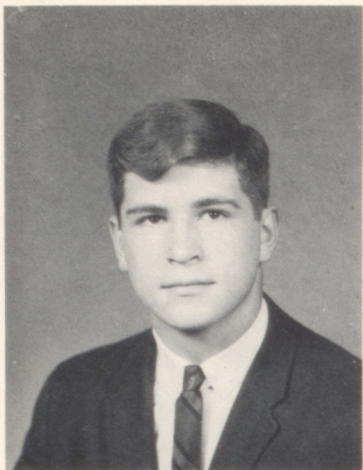

On Monday, April 5, 1966, five girls were chosen from each senior homeroom to be candidates for Ferris' first Lilac Princess. These fifty were then narrowed down to ten by an all-student body election held one week later. The ten were: 1st row: Mary Beth Phelps, Jan Swanson, Sherry Bennett, Suzie Harris, Kathy Cox, Jill Beernink, Mona Hines. 2nd row: Polli Hamlin, Pam Bakken, Stephanie Craven.

Each girl then had two days to prepare a one minute speech on "Why I would like to be a Lilac Princess", and gave that speech at the Wednesday Convocation. Chuck Heaton of KHQ Radio interviewed each girl and introduced the impromptu topics each one selected from the "lilac tree". Two more days of tension and anxiety followed until Friday morning when Ferris' first Princess was crowned: Susan Harris, pictured right.

THE FUTURE BELONGS TO YOU

To you who have prepared for it.

To you, who look to its mysteries with eagerness rather than with apprehension.

To you who will master the challenge of the future, our hands are raised in salute.

The thousand men and women of the Washington Water Power Company, an organization that has also prepared for the future, extend to you their best wishes.
